

"We received numerous expressions of delight and appreciation for your performance. We especially appreciate that, in addition to being most entertaining, you kept your act "clean" and family oriented." R. G. W.

"Having you in Gatlinburg was a real pleasure. We don't remember our audience being captured in quite the same way that you had them on Saturday night." J. L.

"Just a note to let you know how much we enjoyed you at our Annual Stockholders' Dinner. We had a good response the first year your group was with us, but this year everyone knew what a good time they were in for. Everyone had a real good time." C. C.

"Thanks again for the two supper programs 'us two and him' presented for us last month. It's a 'toss-up' as to which of the programs was enjoyed the most, the one for our Retiree's dinner, or the performance for our "Yankee" visitors. We received numerous compliments from both groups." G. D. C.

"We had the opportunity to use their services at two of our company events. They first performed at our employee banquet and were such a 'hit', we booked them as entertainment for our annual customer conference of over 600 people. Again, these 'Chapel Hill Pickers' were a big 'hit'." B. C.

"Our Annual Stockholders' Dinner was a huge success last night, thanks to 'us two and him'. One of the hardest parts of planning this dinner is finding entertainment that appeals to everyone present, but comments were heard around the room last night that the entertainment this year was the best yet. We appreciate you sharing your music and humor with us and providing a most enjoyable evening for our stockholders and employees." M. L. H.

"While the style, talent, and humor is highly professional, the ability of the group to relate to audiences spanning all ages and backgrounds seems to be their greatest asset." J. B.

"The entertainment provided by 'us two and him' at our recent meeting was outstanding! Many of the commission members complimented the professionalism exhibited by your group." A. R. T.

"They are talented, funny, and entertaining. Truly they are a class act that we will invite to come back again. Their music appeals to all ages. I highly recommend this group to anyone" P. W. N.

"I can't begin to tell you how much everyone enjoyed 'us two and him' Saturday evening. You guys did an outstanding job. The audience really enjoyed your songs, and I've heard many favorable comments here at work. Thanks again for a truly enjoyable evening!" C. C.

"I was certainly pleased to hear the warm response of the audience and membership concerning the after-dinner performance by 'us two and him'." J. W.

"I think I speak for all in attendance at our banquet when I say that 'us two and him' provided some of the best entertainment we have had, and I hope I have another opportunity to enjoy them again in the future. Thank you for your recommendation—they were wonderful!" M. A. J.

"We have had nothing but compliments on your program and especially your willingness to come back to the hospitality room after your show and perform in the more casual setting. This was the finishing touch on a perfect reunion and you made this weekend the success it was." T. H.

"Not only were the songs unique, but the humor and obvious fun that the band's members were having during the performance were transmitted to the audience. Everyone talked about the group throughout the entire conference and the reviews were outstanding!" R. T. C.

"We would like to take this time to thank you for making our convention a big success. Your performance was just what we ordered. The people were still talking the next day about your songs. Hope we can plan something together again." W. K. C.

"Please accept my sincere thanks for the outstanding performance that your musical group, 'us two and him' conducted in Chattanooga earlier this month. Not only were the scheduled events superior and greatly enjoyed as evidenced by the audience responses; the extra, unscheduled, and impromptu get-together on Saturday evening added a personal touch not often found at such gatherings." R. H.

"On behalf of the Lions, ladies, and guests from across the state, who assembled in Nashville this past weekend at the Sheraton Music City Hotel for our Lions Convention, let me say 'thank you' for the outstanding performance you provided. It was enjoyed by everyone!" T. D.

"Our company held a series of seminars for first level managers that extended over a period of several months. I asked the Marriott folks if they knew of any musical groups they had worked with that we could engage for after hours entertainment. The trio 'us two and him' was recommended and hired. After the first session, I knew I had made the right choice." J. C.

"It is hard to find entertainment that will appeal to such a cross section of people from all across the United States. You filled that bill to a tee!" T. H.

"I have received nothing but favorable comments from the members, their wives and guests, about the evening and especially, about your performance." R. N.
